Extraordinary Service

The key to the Alyeska experience starts with our extraordinary wedding services team. The team believes that no detail is too small. From initial conversations about your event-specific needs to hands-on attention during your big day, the Alyeska team is dedicated to providing a world-class experience.

Memorable Receptions

Amazing food is a vital part of the Alyeska experience. Whether your wedding is an intimate gathering or a full-scale production, Alyeska provides a variety of options to fit your banquet needs. Customize your wedding day menu with Alaskan favorites or chef specialties. From personalized centerpieces to matching bride and groom cakes, our team ensures a dining experience that complements your big day.

Alyeska Resort is home to AAA Four-Diamond mountain-top restaurant, Seven Glaciers. Located 2,300 feet above the valley floor, Seven Glaciers provides a signature mountain experience with panoramic views of the Turnagain Arm and seven "hanging" glaciers. Chef Aaron Apling-Gilman meticulously crafts the Seven Glaciers menu with seasonal picks and Alaskan specialties in-mind. The extensive wine list is hand-picked to complement the chef's menu. Seven Glaciers is accessed by aerial tram and located adjacent to the Upper Tram Terminal.

Group Activities

Summer or winter, Alyeska provides a variety of outdoor adventures and activities. From Alaska-only outings such as a glacier tours or scenic wildlife cruise, to family-friendly activities such as a naturalist hike or mountain biking, Alyeska offers a chance for your wedding party to play together.

Alyeska is conveniently located and makes for the perfect basecamp for activities in Anchorage and along the Kenai Peninsula. The Alyeska wedding services team will work with your group, and the concierge desk, to design a personalized itinerary that showcases the best of Alaska.

For winter weddings, Alyeska Resort boasts 1,610 skiable acres and a 60-passenger aerial tram. Known for our diverse terrain and abundant snowfall, skiing and riding Alyeska Resort is a must for winter enthusiasts. Alyeska offers private and group lessons for all levels. Heli-skiing and cat-skiing with Chugach Powder Guides is another great way to explore the surrounding mountains. In addition, trails for Nordic skiing and snowshoeing can be accessed right from the hotel.
